What is a mortal sin?

A mortal sin involves an action whose object is grave matter that is committed with full knowledge and deliberate consent. Grave matter is generally understood to be something that violates the Ten Commandments.

Full knowledge means that one is aware that God or the Church he founded considers the act sinful (even if one doesn't totally understand why it is sinful).

Deliberate consent means a consent sufficiently intentional to be a personal choice (CCC 1857-1859).

• St. Michael Feast Day:

Thank you to all who attended the Liturgy, donated ingredients for the dinner, prepared the dinner and enjoyed the delicious food and fellowship. The Feast Day celebration was a success due to the participation of the priests and the many parishioners and guest. May St. Michael continue to protect us and help our parish to grow!

To Tickle Your Funny Bone 😊

In a Catholic school cafeteria, a nun places a note in front of a pile of apples.
“Only take one. God is watching.”

Further down the line, is a pile of cookies.

A little boy makes his own note, “Take all you want. God is watching the apples.”
