How often should I go to confession?

From a Catholic perspective, the Sacrament of Confession is an essential means of God's mercy and spiritual growth. The Church requires Catholics to go to Confession at least once a year if they are conscious of having committed mortal sin. However, the Church strongly encourages more frequent confession, even when one is aware only of venial sins.

Many saints and spiritual writers recommend going to Confession regularly, such as once a month or every few weeks. Frequent Confession helps form the conscience, strengthens the soul against temptation, and deepens humility. It is not only about forgiveness of sins, but also about receiving grace to grow in holiness.

If a person commits a mortal sin, Confession should be sought as soon as possible before receiving Holy Communion. Regular Confession keeps the heart open to God's mercy and helps maintain a close relationship with Christ, who lovingly waits for us in this sacrament of healing and reconciliation.

- Candles: During the month of January 2026, our candles have been graciously donated by the Ionutas family in memory of Claudiu's and Monica's grandparents and family members who are no longer with us. We are also in need of donations for future months. The total cost for altar candles, incense, and another liturgy supplies for one month is $100.

- Cemetery: We kindly ask all families to please remove and clean up Christmas decorations from the cemetery on or before January 31st. This helps us keep the cemetery respectful, safe, and well maintained for everyone. Thank you for your understanding, cooperation, and care for our shared sacred space.

- Office To facilitate accurate accounting, please make sure that you use separate checks/cash for the Special Collection, Candles, Heat and A/C, Building Fund, Cemetery, and Saturday and Sunday collection envelopes.

To Tickle Your Funny Bone 😊

A man walks into a church late and sits down. After a moment, he whispers to the person next to him, "What part of the Liturgy are we in?"

The person replies, "The homily."

The man says, "Oh good—I'm not too late then."

A few minutes later, he whispers again, "How long has it been going?"

The person answers, "About ten minutes."

The man sighs in relief and says, "Perfect. That means I still have time to repent before it ends." 😊🙏
