Sunday of All Saints

The first Sunday after the Feast of Holy Pentecost is observed by the Eastern Church as the Sunday of All Saints. This day has been designated as a commemoration of all of the Saints, all the Righteous, the Prophets, Apostles, Martyrs, Confessors, Shepherds, Teachers, and Holy Monastics, both men and women alike, known and unknown, who have been added to the choirs of the Saints and shall be added, from the time of Adam until the end of the world, who have been perfected in piety and have glorified God by their holy lives.

To Tickle Your Funny Bone 😊

The story of Adam and Eve was being carefully explained in the vacation Bible School. Following the story, the children were asked to draw a picture to illustrate some part of the story. The teacher was at a loss to understand how this illustrated the lesson.

But little Emily was prompt with her explanation. “Why, this is God driving Adam and Eve out of the garden.
